INFORMED CONSENT

1. Goals of Treatment: As your therapist, it is my intention to help you in the areas that you would like assistance without creating dependence…Specific goals can be negotiated in the therapy session and revisited on a regular basis to assess the effectiveness of the interventions being utilized.

2. Guarantees: As much as we would like to be able to do so, there are NO GUARANTEES that the counseling sessions will produce the results you are seeking.

3. Risks Associated with Counseling: There are risks associated with being in a therapeutic counseling relationship. During counseling, you will deal with difficult issues in your life that can produce "emotional, behavioral, and relational difficulties." At times, it can make your presenting issues even more difficult than when you first began counseling.

4. Contacting Clients: Unless otherwise noted by you to your therapist, each counselor will use the numbers you provide to them in order to reach you.

5. Regarding Text message, Phone Calls, E-mails, and Faxes: While we prioritize confidentiality, it is very important that you are aware that Text messages, Phone Calls, Emails and Faxes can be easily accessed by unauthorized people and therefore, the privacy of such communication can be compromised. If you choose to contact any employee of Pathway Counseling by any method mentioned above, you hereby remove Pathway Counseling and their employees from any form of liability.

6. Client Emergencies: If you are experiencing an emergency, please contact 911 or the Central Florida Hotline. If you choose to call the answering service for Pathway Counseling or an Employee of Pathway Counseling, there is NO GUARANTEE of when we will be able to return your call during this emergency.

7. Therapist vacations: During vacations, you can leave your message with the answering service, BUT there are times in which the messages you leave CANNOT be received by the therapist. Each therapist determines IF and WHEN they are able to return calls left to them while they are on vacation.

8. In cases of emergencies "while in the counseling session:" At times, during a counseling session, a client may become "very depressed or suicidal." At which point a member of Pathway Counseling may need to contact a family member or your emergency contact to provide assistance. It is important for you to provide on your intake form a "list of names: along with "authorization" for your counselor to contact these individuals.

9. Confidentiality and Privilege: The State of Florida, HIPAA, and our Notice of Privacy policy outline your rights to confidentiality and privilege during your counseling sessions. All information being dealt with during the therapy session is considered confidential and privileged UNLESS the information you provide meets the following EXCEPTIONS: (A) Client authorizes release of information in writing and waives privilege, (B) Client reports current abuse of a child, disabled person, elderly individual, or someone who is vulnerable and unable to leave a place of abuse due to institutionalization, (C) Client poses a danger to self or others, (D) Ordered by a "court of law" to make records available, (E) Bill collection/collection agency (as stated in the Notice of Privacy Practices), (F) Parent-child relationship where parent has legal authority over the records.

10. Counseling and Financial Records: All records are maintained as in accordance with HIPAA and the State of Florida guidelines for Mental Health counseling.

11. Ethical Guidelines: Creating a safe therapeutic environment is essential for a healthy relationship to develop between the client and therapist. For this to occur, ethical guidelines are very important. Some of the most significant are: (A) Sexual Contact: There is to be NO FORM of sexual contact between the client and therapist. This includes inappropriate and/or unwanted sexual conversations by text message, phone, e-mail, or personal communication, touch, of private meetings outside of the normal scheduled appointment. (B) Violence/ Harassment if you become violent, threaten verbally or physically, harass me, my coworkers, or my family, Pathway Counseling Therapists reserves the right to immediately terminate the counseling relationship. Should this happen, you will be offered referrals for other sources of care. (C) Dual relationships is best defined as a "relationship which exists both in the therapeutic environment and social or family settings. For example: employer/employee, family members, or close friendships. A "DUAL RELATIONSHIP" decreases the effectiveness of the counseling and puts undue pressure on the client. (C) Fees for service: There is a "fee for service" based upon the "household income" of the individual or family who is seeking therapy. There shall be NO FORM of "bartering" or exchanging of services for the counseling provided.

12. Dispute and complaints: If you have a dispute with one of the therapists at Pathway Counseling, please contact the Director, Charles Wise, in an attempt to have the issue resolved. If there is a need to go beyond the Director, Charles Wise, you may contact the State of Florida Licensing Board for Mental Health Counselors. Clients seeking counseling release, remise, and forever discharge and covenant not to sue or hold legally liable Pathway Counseling or employees from any and all claims, demands, actions, or causes of action related to the counseling process. Clients waive the right to seek the use of clinical records as evidence in any judicial proceeding or to compel the testimony of any employee providing counseling at Pathway Counseling.

13. Licensing Regulations: All therapists of Pathway Counseling are either: Licensed Mental Health Counselors, Licensed Marriage and Family Therapists, Licensed Social Workers, Licensed Clinical Pastoral Counselor, Ordained Ministers, or Registered Interns etc.. All Licensed therapists are required to complete 30 hours of continuing education (CEU) every two years. This is to ensure that you are receiving the best possible care by a qualified professional. For a minimum of 2 years, all Registered Interns meet regularly with a "Clinical Supervisor" to review their "case load" to ensure they are providing the best quality of care for their clients. Guidelines are used to ensure your "confidentiality" when discussing your counseling sessions. At times when assistance is needed in dealing with a "particular" situation, the staff of Pathway Counseling will use professional colleague consultation to ensure each client receives the best possible care.

14. Fees, charges, and responsibility for payment: Pathway Counseling charges a fee of $150 for the counseling session. That fee may be reduced based upon a "sliding scale" which is determined by the agreed upon financial needs of the client. (A) A "fee schedule" would be provided by the therapist and is placed in the client file. It is your responsibility to pay for services rendered at the beginning of each session. (B) Based upon the "fee schedule" your counseling fee shall be $_____ per session. (C) Payment can be made by: check, cash, credit card and sometimes HSA cards. (D) There are additional charges for which you will be responsible if you choose the other services provided by Pathway Counseling:

    a. Witness fee/ Court Appearance: a fee of $350 per hour which is determined from the time the therapist leaves their home until they return. This fee is to be PAID IN FULL before the court appearance.
    b. Depositions: a fee of $350 per hour which is determined from the time the therapist leaves their home until they return. This fee is to be PAID IN FULL before the date of the deposition and is to be PAID REGARDLESS of whose attorney is requesting the deposition.
    c. Preparation time for Deposition, Witness and Court Appearance, Write up of summaries for record etc.: a fee of $150 per hour and is to be PAID IN FULL along with the payment fees for parts A and B listed above.
    d. Testing and Evaluations for Learning Disabilities, Behavioral, Personality, Career, and ADD/ADHD: Prices vary based upon testing and materials. Cost shall be determined by your therapist.

15. Insurance Policy: Pathway Counseling may choose the "sliding scale" fee structure since many people do not have mental health insurance benefits. To assist those submitting insurance claims, upon request, we can provide the receipt which you can submit to your medical insurance company.

16. Cancellation Policy: In order to provide the best possible care to you and each of our other clients, Pathway Counseling requires a minimum of 24 hours advanced notice of the cancellation of your scheduled appointment. Please contact your counselor directly or leave a message with Pathway Counseling answering service which is open 24 hours. Based upon the reason for your missed appointment (if no notice is given) you can or will be charged for your missed session at the RATE OF YOUR STANDARD FEE.  PLEASE NOTE By signing the INFORMED CONSENT you are AUTHORIZING Pathway Counseling to charge your credit card for the amount of your standard fee.

Counseling Minor Clients

A minor can enter treatment in ONE of Five ways:

1) Parental Consent
2) Involuntary at a parent's insistence
3) By order of a Court of Law

4) The individual has become an “emancipated minor” as described by the American Bar Association as “living separately from parents and is managing his or her own financial affairs” (ABA, 1980, p. 66)
5) Florida Statute 394.4784. Minor age 13 years or older may have access to mental health services under the guidelines and circumstance of Florida Law.

In order for Pathway to provide the best possible care of Minor Clients, we require the “consent and involvement” of the parent or legal guardian.

In cases of DIVORCE, Pathway must receive copies of guardianship orders, general and limited power of attorney, custody orders, or letters of authority, showing that you have the authority to provide “CONSENT” for the child to be seen by a therapist.

Also note that in cases of “joint legal custody,” parents have equal legal responsibility of the child and are required to sign the “informed consent” of the minor child to be seen by a counselor at Pathway. Both parents, in this case, shall be responsible for payment of counseling fees as is dictated in the “final divorce decree.” Please note it is the responsibility of the Parent to obtain reimbursement from the EX-SPOUSE for the counseling fees which were paid.

Counseling Families and Couples

In order to provide counseling for either FAMILIES or COUPLES at Pathway Counseling, the following issues are to be agreed upon:

1) Each individual is committed to preserving the “confidentiality” of all information disclosed during the therapy sessions.
2) Although CONFIDENTIALITY is strongly encouraged or even required, the therapist CANNOT GUARANTEE that other family members will not violate this trust.
3) There will also be a “NO SECRET” policy in dealing with family or couples. According to the “no secret” policy, any information obtained by the counselor from one partner can or may be shared with the other partner or family member.
4) The client recognizes the difficulty in maintaining confidentiality and will not hold the counselor “liable” for information which is shared between spouses, partners, or family.

I, the undersigned, agree to the terms of the INFORMED CONSENT and desire to seek counseling at Pathway Counseling Ministry.
